

Interoffice Memo

The Glenbrook High Schools

To: Dr. Michael Riggle

Fm: Diane Freeman

Re: Students and Staff Who Excel

Date: February 8, 2010

Glenbrook North senior Brian Freidin competed in the first-ever Who Wants to be a Mathematician contest sponsored by the American Mathematical Society. Based on his qualifying test score, Freidin was one of ten selected nationally to compete for $10,000 in the Who Wants to be a Mathematician contest. The contest took place January 14 at the annual Joint Mathematics Meetings in San Francisco, attended by over 6,000 mathematicians. Freidin placed sixth and won $500, some books, and $500 for GBN's Math Team.

Glenbrook South radio, WGBK was awarded as one of the top three radio stations in the John Drury High School Radio Awards program. In addition, three programs received individual awards: Best Sports Broadcast, 1st Place, Brian Siegel for Charity Stripe, Best Public Affairs Program, 1st Place, Kyle T. Henning for School Safety, and Best Sports Play-by-Play, 3rd place, Alex Goslin, Chad Laurie, Wilson Smith, Ian Pragovich for Football Broadcast Live. Radio teacher is Dr. Dan Oswald.