MEMO

Glenbrook North junior follows his passion for artistic expression

Dean Kousiounelos, a junior at GBN, has been refining his artistic skills for his entire life.

A contemporary artist who works in multiple mediums, Dean has recently been showing off his skills in open air painting competitions. Members of the community have even begun approaching Dean with offers to purchase his work. Dean's impressive collection of work draws inspiration from a multitude of places.

Through his Glenbrook Story, we learn more about Dean's truly thoughtful, unique perspective and his passion for artistic expression.
