Re: Students and Staff Who Excel

Date: May 17, 2016

At the meeting on May 23, we will continue with our new spring format for our Excel recognitions. We will plan to honor two separate students accomplishments from Glenbrook North.

IHSA Group Interpretation - Third Place

The 13 members of the Group Interpretation team were effective in using only the sounds of their voices and movements of their bodies to bring to life the story of "A Monster Calls," a book by Patrick Ness. Competing against 60 schools from across Illinois, the team earned a victory of third place in the IHSA state competition.

International Career Development Conference (ICDC) Winners

Eight DECA competitors were successful in securing international honors in their individual events at ICDC this April. In each event, students faced off against the top 200 competitors in their categories, totaling 18,000 finalists from 55 states and countries.

1st place: Sports and Entertainment Marketing Team - Jake Feiger (Senior) and Ricky Kirkpatrick (Senior); 3rd place: Fashion Merchandising Promotion Plan - Ben Zhao (Junior), Human Resources Management - Jason Spector (Senior); Top 10: Marketing Management - Charles Kang (Sophomore); Top 20: Buying and Merchandising Team - Dylan Rose (Junior) & Griffin Mattson (Junior), Professional Selling Event - Daniel Hu (Senior)

The students, their sponsors and parents were invited to the meeting for formal recognition.
