Professional Experience:

In his time at Glenbrook South, Tom has been successful in his various roles as Physical Education teacher, assistant football coach, assistant wrestling coach, and head wrestling coach. He has served as the Assistant Athletic Director since 2016, and during this time he designed and implemented the Titan Leadership Academy for Junior athletes. He also has served as the liaison for the redesign of the Central Suburban League Leadership Conference and as an assistant to the Associate Principal for Curriculum and Instruction in planning the annual state testing process. During the interview process, Tom shared that his mission is to educate, empower, and energize his students, athletes, and coaches to be their best. In order to accomplish this vision, he lives by and reinforces the 6 Cs: connection, character, competence, consistency, communication, courage. As he transitions into the role of Athletic Director, he looks forward to facilitating a Mission/Vision/Principles (MVP) process with the department in order to focus on culture and leadership. Tom brings to the Administrative Council his strong, trusting relationships with staff across the building, as well as his excellent organizational, problem-solving, and communication skills.
