Board and Superintendent Reports 2.1

The Board president explained this agenda topic was added because the Board thought it would be valuable with everything going on in the District.

The Board president shared the Board's perspective of their basic guiding principles. These principles can be found in past practice and policies which help ensure Glenbrook excellence. The Board asked the community to stay mindful of these principles and thanked them for sharing their comments and asked for their support during these difficult times.

The superintendent:

- Thanked the community for their comments and suggestions
- Noted the many differing views

- Reviewed the District's mission statement
- Highlighted the need for dignity, respect and open communication even during difficult discussions
- Stated the goal remains the same, for students to achieve their dreams

Recognition of Community Visitors

Community members commented on:

- Concern for the education and mental health of their children
- Email from GBS principal regarding a specific student
- The need for fair and open communication on differing political views vs. the political bias of certain teachers
- Support for the Board's thoughtful approach on how they have handled education during a pandemic
- Silence regarding the removal of GBS Athletic Director
- The experience of their student who returned to the classroom
- Too much screen time and the idea of reinstating Wednesdays off
- Possibly bringing back seniors
- Appreciating the superintendent responding to emails
- The teacher contract and having teachers in the building
- Why a student was not allowed an in-person safe meeting with a college counselor
- Challenges with zoom especially for foreign language students
- Wanting additional data on Step 2
- Removal of SRO's (student resource officers) both pro and con
- The wanting of an actionable item to make the schools a truly welcoming space by the ACORN group
- Having a third party perform an equity audit of our curriculum
- Wanting to know who is on the advisory board and what the metrics are
- Having the Academy classes return to school
- A metric tool from Northwestern University
- Having in-person board meetings
- Teachers doing a great job with e-learning this year
- What curriculum has been cut from students education to fit with the new e-learning format

The Board president thanked the community members for their comments and reminded the community that the Board does not directly respond to specific comments, but they do listen. Also thanked the teachers for all their hard work.
