Social Studies (Debate) and English - GBS
Ms. Alyssa Corrigan

Degrees:

M.A., Arts in Teaching, National-Louis University, Chicago, IL
M.A., Communication Studies, University of North Texas, Denton, TX
B.A., Communication Studies, University of Nevada, Las Vegas, NV

Certifications:

Secondary (Social Studies, English, and Special Education)

Professional Experience:

Alyssa Corrigan has recently distinguished herself in her roles at GBS as an Instructional Assistant in English and Debate Coach and Debate Director. Not only has she been recognized for her outstanding efforts and contributions by national debate organizations, but she has established a more inclusive vision of the Debate program at GBS.

Her work with the English Studies classes and in the TLC have ignited a passion for ensuring the academic success of all students, being particularly sensitive to the needs of our most vulnerable populations. During her student teaching in Social Studies, she made it a priority to connect with students personally and designed learning experiences that were highly meaningful and relevant, while being rigorous and carefully scaffolded.

Alyssa models the whole-hearted dedication that is characteristic of a GBS teacher and would add tremendous value to our faculty.
