Re: Students and Staff Who Excel

Date: May 10, 2010

Glenbrook Symphony Orchestra co-conductor Kristin Wagner has been selected for this summer's Juilliard Conducting Fellowship. She was one of ten selected for the fellowship out of 882 applicants. As part of the fellowship she will be working directly with international conductors and teachers from across the United States and Europe.

Glenbrook South student Alison Wawrzynek will be recognized. She was named to the 2010 Chicago-Tribune All-State Academic team. Principal Brian Wegley will introduce Allison.
